

Political Science

Henry Goodman

Submitted by Andrea B. Haupt

Henry Goodman is certainly an outstanding student in Political Science and without doubt deserving of the honor of being chosen as this year's honoree. Henry has been a serious student, dedicated to the assigned tasks. He has been achieving perfect grades in his Political Science classes. There is no question that Henry will go far and will excel in any context, but for now he is the star student of our department for 2023/2024. Congratulations, Henry!
