

Umoja Center

Iyana Brown

Submitted by Lelia Richardson

Iyana Brown exemplifies the essence of versatility and dynamism as a student, artist, and entrepreneur. As an Umoja Scholar, she radiates positivity, warmth, and inclusivity within the village space, while also fulfilling her role as an indispensable Umoja English 110/111 tutor. With her innate ability to connect with students, Iyana inspires confidence and fosters belief in their abilities. Despite navigating personal and academic hurdles, her unwavering commitment to serving students and enriching the Umoja community shines through her quiet yet impactful leadership style, coupled with grace, humor, and an insatiable curiosity.